Here is a fantastic opportunity to acquire a well-developed popular and operational tourist accommodation property, set on about 1.34 acres of manageable land in a peaceful and rural setting. Situated out of town near the stunning Anson Bay beach and close to the National Park and surrounded by subtropical gardens, the property has five separate self-contained dwellings, consisting of:

This property could have any number of uses, only limited by your imagination and we encourage buyers to think outside the box about what this excellent complex could become!
