47g1 Martins Road, Norfolk Island

Panoramic views of ocean, mountains and valley

Whilst purchasing an existing home and the ease of moving straight into it certainly has its advantages, so too does carefully selecting your ideal portion and creating your dream home to match. That is the opportunity available here! Rather than settling for someone else's design and taste (or lack thereof!), and never quite finding the right home to meet your desires, on this stunning vacant portion you can curate your own lifestyle with panoramic views, space and privacy.

Situated on Martin's Road in the Buck's Point area, this is a premier location on Norfolk Island. The height of the ridge the portion enables wrap around views of the island and out to the ocean. You're perfectly positioned to appreciate both sunrises and sunsets, such is the aspect.

Cleared in sections, there are stunning existing native trees onsite, dotted across the large section which cascades down the hillside ensuring no-one can ever interfere with your views.
