16 Red Rd, Norfolk Island

Treetop Home on 5.4 Hectares Near the National Park

Framed by the pristine Norfolk Island National Park, is a unique 5.4-hectare property on Red Road containing a distinctive island home from hand-picked Norfolk Island pine. From an elevated position it enjoys views spanning across the treetops right out to the ocean. Rarely do homes take in nature with such splendour, promising tranquil mornings and serene evenings amidst the majestic outdoors.

The split-level home enjoys outstanding views of its surrounding natural bushlands, and from the moment you set foot inside the house you will experience and enjoy the peaceful relaxing setting. Imagine waking up to the sound of birds chirping and the gentle rustling of trees. Spend your days exploring your own private bushland, whether it's going for a hike or pottering about in the garden, you will never tire of the magnificent view of Phillip Island.

Upstairs, the house is predominantly timber, with pine walls and floors and raked ceiling throughout, providing a natural earthy vibe. The enormous living room captures the breathtaking views through the floor-to-ceiling glass walls. The formal dining room could be converted to an extra bedroom or office with a few alterations. The master bedroom with ensuite bathroom and walk in robe is spacious and bright.

Downstairs is a large bedroom with its own sitting room and an additional bathroom. There is also a large laundry, a craft room, workshop, and a two-car garage with roller doors. The underground water tank ensures sufficient water supply for the home.
